

Patrick Wing Bio

Patrick Wing is a partner at Marquette and works from our Philadelphia office. An owner of the firm, Pat joined the company in 2017 through the merger of Peirce Park Group, where he started working in 2013. He has 22 years of investment experience and serves as the primary investment consultant on several client relationships with a focus on public funds. Pat is a member of the firm's OCIO committee and operations committee. He also provides quantitative, analytical, and research support to the consulting staff.

Prior to joining Peirce Park Group, he spent nine years at Cambridge Associates in the firm's Arlington, Virginia office. While there, he was a member of the firm's Investment Strategy Research Group. His role included developing investment ideas and research topics for firmwide asset allocation decisions and client advice.

Patrick holds a B.A. in economics from the College of the Holy Cross. He is a CFA® charterholder and has also earned the Certificate in Investment Performance Measurement.
